Aquanaut Monte Cristo 1100 elegant and sporty, a wolf in sheep's clothing.

The Aquanaut Monte Cristo is truly designed with the thought of living outside on deck. Enjoying the outdoors and the ease of comfort, living space and easy handling of the boat combined with excellent long (fast) distance cruising characteristics but also enjoying cruising the inland waterways. A fly from which you as skipper, with your fellow passengers, have a good and magnificent view.

Below decks there is an owner's cabin with free-standing bed, a bathroom with toilet, sink and shower facilities, a single guest cabin (or to be used as storage space) and the U-shaped galley. In the salon the steering position, a U-shaped seating area with table and a good view outside. Also an additional worktop with cupboard space and microwave. The very spacious open cockpit has plenty of room for deck chairs and table. The hydraulic swim platform easily launches the dinghy or is ideal in nice weather as an additional "terrace".

This aluminum built Aquanaut of 12.40 m is a wolf in sheep's clothing, with good and fine sailing characteristics on the smaller waterways but also very much in her element on the wider water. A very special and unique boat!
