DD Kruiser 1250

The DD-Kruiser 1250 from the renowned German shipyard Drettmann is a spacious and light motor yacht that immediately stands out for its generous interior space and large aft deck, which is equipped with a fully closable tent; wide gangways make moving around on board extra comfortable. This yacht, which was completely repainted in 2019, is equipped with a powerful DAF D.T. 615 engine and both bow and stern thrusters, making maneuvering effortless and relaxed.

In the bow there is a guest cabin with a V-bed and a separate toilet room with electric toilet and washbasin. The kitchen is practically equipped with a worktop, a 3-burner stove, sink and refrigerator, and adjoins a cozy U-shaped dinette where eating and relaxing together is a matter of course. In the saloon, the interior steering position has been removed but the surround has been retained; a wall of cupboards together with the L-shaped sofa opposite create an attractive and functional living space.

At the rear of the yacht, you will find a spacious, separate bathroom with shower and a separate toilet room with electric toilet and washbasin. The owner's cabin offers storage space on both sides and a generous freestanding bed measuring 205 x 160 cm, combining comfort and storage space. In 2019, the cushions were reupholstered and the floors were fitted with new carpeting, giving the whole interior a fresh and well-maintained look. With large windows, a width of 4.10 m, and a total length of 13.10 m, this is a particularly spacious and light motor yacht that offers a high level of comfort on board.
