The spacious bow section features a separate cabin with a V-bed that can be easily converted into a spacious double bed with a clever filler piece. Next to this sleeping area is a cozy dinette with an adjoining galley equipped with a four-burner gas stove, refrigerator with freezer compartment, sink, and a spacious worktop. The saloon has a comfortable sofa with the interior steering position directly opposite, featuring clearly arranged control panels and a wall of cupboards. In the stern is the separate toilet room, equipped with a pump toilet. The owner's cabin has a semi-detached double bed, a washbasin with mirror, and plenty of storage/cupboard space.

Under the saloon floor is the Craftsman CM4.65 diesel engine with 65 hp, installed in 2025 with only about 15 hours of use.

On the spacious aft deck, you will find an outdoor steering position, two wooden benches with storage space under the cushions, a sprayhood, and a bimini. The Fidego is equipped with stainless steel railings, a swimming ladder, and a fixed swimming platform. Two 175W solar panels on the roof effortlessly recharge the batteries.
