Jetten Bully 800

The Jetten Bully 800 is a sturdy, compact and well-maintained motorboat that, thanks to bow thruster, low headroom and shallow draft, is ideal for day trips, weekends away and longer holidays. With a short turning radius and excellent manoeuvring characteristics, this Bully is highly manoeuvrable in narrow canals and busy harbours, while the full-fledged motor installation provides plenty of power and reliability for leisurely rides. Despite the modest dimensions, it feels surprisingly spacious on board due to the well-thought-out layout and clever use of space, especially when the opening cockpit doors are open.

The mahogany interior of the eight-meter-long 'Fier' is tastefully and practically laid out, in the front of the ship there is a sleeping cabin with V-bed and a toilet room, there is also a galley with spacious worktop, a 2-burner stove, sink and a refrigerator. A staircase leads to the attractive saloon with inside steering position, cupboard wall and a cozy sofa, with a view to the outside, which can also serve as an extra sleeping place. The self-draining open cockpit offers a comfortable bench seat and an outdoor shower. The Bully is also equipped with wide gangways and many stainless steel details, including railing, roof railing and bollards, which enhances both the appearance and functionality.

In short, a motorboat to be proud (meaning of 'Fier') of, ready to explore with you!
